

ANNOUNCEMENT

October 10, 2013

Stacey Muirhead Capital Management Ltd. announced today that Mark Eamer will be joining the firm as a Partner effective November 1, 2013 to be responsible for all of the firm's administrative and business activities.

Mark joins Stacey Muirhead after many years as a Partner at Hemmerich, Flanagan, Kratz, Eamer & McRae LLP where he has been providing accounting, auditing and tax services to owner-managed, entrepreneurial and tech-based businesses in the Waterloo Region. Mark also has prior career experience with Ernst & Young LLP and BDO Canada LLP.

Mark graduated from the University of Waterloo with a Master of Accounting degree in 1995 and obtained his CA designation in 1996. In 2008, Mark was a recipient of the Waterloo Region Record "Top 40 Under 40" award. Mark has also been involved with numerous local community charitable activities.

Jeff Stacey, Founding Partner of Stacey Muirhead, commented, "I am delighted that Mark has chosen to join our firm. He is smart, hard working and demonstrates integrity in everything he does. With the growing scale and increasing complexity associated with building and sustaining a best in class global investment management firm, it is crucial that we have dedicated leadership focused exclusively on running the business. This new structure will allow me to devote my time to leading the investment process at Stacey Muirhead. I believe that this new structure positions us well strategically while recognizing that continuing to serve clients with excellence must remain the cornerstone of all that we do."

Stacey Muirhead Capital Management Limited is a global, value oriented, multi-strategy investment firm. It acts as portfolio manager to the Stacey Muirhead Limited Partnership and the Stacey Muirhead RSP Fund as well as separately managed accounts.
